

The new proposed regulations of faxing commercial messages will greatly limit our ability to do business with our 4,800 members who already have an internal mechanism of limiting unwanted emails or faxes from us. We hope nonprofit organizations with memberships will be determined to be exempt from such regulations limiting this inexpensive method of communicating with our constituents.